Title	WORKSHOP ON MIME
Organised by	Department of Assamese in collaboration with IQAC, PDUAM, Amjonga
Resource Persons	Mr Kangkan Talukdar, Assam Mime and Skit Theatre Academy
Number of Participants	47
Venue	PDUAM Amjonga

Report of the Program:

On the 28th of June 2023, a ‘one-day’ “WORKSHOP ON MIME” as an integral part of performing-art was organized by the Department of Assamese in collaboration with IQAC, PDUAM, Amjonga. The workshop began with a welcome speech delivered by Dr. Binita Das, faculty of Assamese Department, with a special greeting to Mr Kangkan Talukdar who was invited as a resource person to the workshop. Mr Kangkan Talukdar is a senior Mime artist of Assam Mime and Skit Theatre Academy and has won numerous accolades across India. The resource person Mr. Talukdar stated in his words that Mime acting is a form of physical theatre which involves acting out a story with mere movements of the body, without the use of speech. After that, he graced the participants with a set of information about the introduction of Mime and various related aspects such as a scientific and technical training about kinaesthetic. He even ventured forth to create body awareness amongst everyone through physical training in order to develop precise movement which in turn would develop on-point illusions. He even spoke of fixed-point exercise and the purpose of mime makeup. Furthermore, the participants got to witness the use of creativity to bring about a character using mime walk and illusions. The demonstration on make-up as a vital element of Mime-art was beautifully presented.
